

A Neuroscientist's Naughty Swaps (Gender Swap Alpha Male Erotica)

This story contains explicit sexual content between an alpha male and a male who becomes female for submission to this dominant man and is thus intended for mature audiences only! Terrell has a good life and a good job, but hes missing one thing--a sense of identity. He sees himself as more female, wanting to be dominated in the bedroom, but always winding up too submissive to get a good experience. Desperate, he begins to ponder his options when one day, a Dr. Grey advertises a special neurological treatment to change genders. Eager to finally get the chance to not just think like a female but as one, he signs up. He soon becomes Tina, and when he returns home and encounters his alpha male roommate, Michael, the ensuing encounter is too hot to describe here, other than to say Tina/Terrell will finally get that dominated experience!
